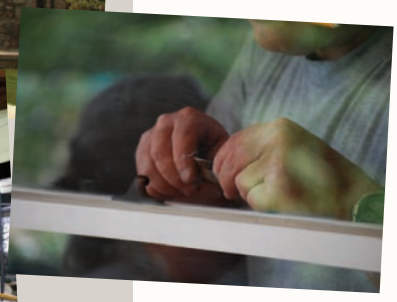
UTAH HERITAGE FOUNDATION PRESENTS

UTAH HERITAGE FOUNDATION

2013 Utah Preservation Conference
Saving the Past | Sustaining the Future
May 9–11, 2013



UTAH HERITAGE FOUNDATION hosts its seventh annual Preservation Conference, Saving the Past | Sustaining the Future, looking at the preservation of structures that make up Utah's landscape - from pioneer-era through the mid-century. This conference not only serves as a network to share ideas and challenges, but also served as the official historic preservation training for the state's Certified Local Government program. We hope that you will take advantage of the new ideas that continually come from preservation-minded individuals at our 2013 Utah Preservation Conference.

Historic Preservation The Next Ten Years
May 10, 12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m. Banquet Hall, Salt Lake Masonic Temple, 650 E. South Temple, SLC

The field of historic preservation has made tremendous strides in the last ten years. But with an ever-changing matrix of politics, economy, environment, and public support, what will be the top issues facing the American preservation movement over the next ten years? M. Wayne Donaldson FAIA, will draw on his experience to highlight what he believes are both challenges and opportunities, with particular attention to livable communities, sustainability, and resiliency. As the current chair of the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation, he will look ahead at the role of the council in coordinating reviews done under Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act.
